ARCHDEACON TYLER CHOSEN

Amendments to All Canons Referred to Committee to Report Next Year.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
CHARLOTTESVILLE, VA., May 19.— The one hundred and tenth annual session of the Council of the Protestant Episcopal Church in the Diocese of Virginia adjourned this afternoon, to meet next year in Alexandria.

The early morning service at 7 o'clock was conducted by the Rev. W. B. Lee, of Gloucester. At 11 o'clock the business session was resumed, divine service being led by the Rev. H. F. Klonan, of Haymarket.

Bishop Gibson named the following commission on amendments to canons, the same to report at the next meeting of the Council: Rev. R. A. G. Massie, Judge A. W. Wallace and Judge H. C. Scott.
The report of the Finance Committee, of which Mr. Joseph Bryan, of Richmond, is chairman, was read by Mr. L. M. Black-ford, of Alexandria, and adopted. The receipts for the past year were $19,052.66, disbursements, $16,303.88.

PAY ARCHDEACON.
The report recommends that the sum of $1,000 be put subject to the order of the bishop, to be paid in four quarterly instalments to such archdeacon as may be chosen to do missionary work under the bishop in the diocese, such appropriation to expire April 30, 1906.

It further recommends that 1,000 copies of the address of the bishop made at the opening of the Council be printed in such form as the committee to whom the printing of it was referred may deem proper, and that the cost be paid by the treasurer.

There was for the fiscal year just ended a decrease in the collections for the contingent fund of $291.21—which was an unexpected disclosure, as in view of the extraordinary expenses with which the diocese was immediately confronted and which was well known to the members of the last Council, it was believed that the report for the year would show an increase and not a decrease.

SUNDAY SCHOOLS.
The Rev. H. F. Klonan read the report of the Committee on Sunday Schools. There is an increase over the previous year in the number of teachers and scholars and also an increase in the total congregation. The total number of teachers reported is 1,044; scholars, 9,792; contributions, $6,655.91.

On motion of Rector Lee, it was resolved that the Executive Committee of the Diocesan Missionary Society elect the Rev.
John Poyntz Tyler archdeacon at the same salary now paid him.

The Rev. Robt. White, of Greene, read the report of the Committee on Credentials, and the Rev. Frederick W. Neve, of Ivy, that on the State of the Church.

The Rev. W. S. Campbell, of the Presbyterian Church, general secretary of the Bible Society, made a very interesting report to the Council.

The Rev. A. W. Wallace's report on the increase of the ministry was exceedingly interesting, well prepared and valuable.

The Rev. R. A. Goodwin, of St. John's Church, Richmond, read the reference to the Committee on Revision of Canons, to the various changes desired with a request that it report next year. This was carried.

ters of the King met in the Sunday school conducted by the Rev. E. E. Osgood, of

BABY CAME NEAR DYING

From an Awful Skin Humor, Scatched Till Blood Ran,
Wasted to a Skeleton.

SPEEDILY CURED BY CUTICURA

"When three months old my boy broke out with an itching, watery rash all over his body, and he would scratch till the blood ran. We tried nearly everything, but he grew worse, wasting to a skeleton, and we feared he would die. He slept only when in our arms. The first application of Cuticura soothed him so that he slept in his cradle for the first time in many weeks. Of the set of Cuticura made a complete and permanent cure. (Signed) Mrs. M. C. Maitland,

THE GOVERNOR OFFERS A REWARD FOR THREE

The Wets of Shenandoah City to Contest the Election.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.) LURAY, VA., May 19.—Governor Montague authorized Commonwealth's Atorney Keyser, of this county, to offer a reward of $100 for Harry Keyser, June Camer and Pearl Kite, charged with being leaders in the drowning of Henry Henderson, colored, near Ingham, this county, the latter part of last February.

Henderson, whose home was in Green-county, N. C., was missing through the Ingham section when he was set upon by Keyser, Comer and Kite and several companions, and in his fright, he attempted to cross the Shenandoah River when he was drowned.

All of the participants in the affair have been indicted and all captured except the above.

The local option election held at Shenandoah city, this county, on May 9th when the "dry" people won by four votes, was contested by the "wets" in the Circuit Court of this county. The ground upon which the contest will be made is that many voters were not permitted to vote and were qualified to do so; that "dry" voters who were permitted to vote as old soldiers, not having paid the poll tax, were not in the military branch of the Confederate service, and were not old soldiers; that the writ of election was not granted by the court in ten days after application for same, and that the election was illegal because held within thirty days of the regular town election, the constitution providing for it to be held on June 6th.

THE GREAT PEA CROP.

A Turtle Catches a Crow and Causes Big Commotion.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
FREDERICKSBURG, VA., May 19.— Shipments of the great pea crop of the Rappahannock Valley to Baltimore is now at its height. The steamers are taxed beyond their capacity with this crop and in consequence are far beyond schedule time on nearly every trip and will probably continue so until the pea season is over.

The property belonging to the estate of the late Mrs. Sarah G. Searcy was sold at auction yesterday and different parcels purchased by different parties as follows: Lot No. 1, to J. J. Minor; lot No. 2, to O. M. Armstrong; lot No. 3, to Mrs. Eliza M. Hicks.

Captain E. W. Smith has purchased of William Chilton a farm of eighty acres near Spotsylvania Courthouse. Mr. Chilton will move to Georgia.

At the close of the season was brought to this city yesterday from Stafford county and sold to the Melville Woolen Mills for the high price of thirty cents per pound.

Mr. James E. Tyler and Miss Clara V. Tyler, son and daughter of the late Charles E. Tyler, were here yesterday and qualified as executor and executrix respectively, to administer on such of Mr. Tyler's estate as is located in this city.

Mr. James W. Lane, a farmer of Spotsylvania county, noticing excitement in the field of crops in his corn field a few days ago, went into the field and fired at the birds. He found that one crow had been caught by a turtle and the others had been trying to extricate it.

Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Humphreys, of Spotsylvania county, announced the coming of their daughter, Miss Clyde Humphreys, to Mr. Perry Counter-man, the ceremony to take place at Walter's church, in Spotsylvania county, on Wednesday, May 24th, at 4:30 P. M.

LOUISA AROUSED.

Determined on a Nine Months' Session—Good Speeches.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
LOUISA, VA., May 19.—The educational rally here today was held in a grove in the west end of the town, with a great crowd present.

Frank T. West, county superintendent of schools, introduced Rev. L. J.
Haley, who offered prayer. Judge F. W.
Sims presided over the meeting and introduced the speakers. Chief of the great show was shown to the speaker, Professor Charles W. Kent, of the University of Virginia. He said that he had spoken in almost all of the counties in the cause of education, but that this was the first time he had made a speech in this, his own, county of Louisa.

Professor Kent was followed by Mr.
George H. Hulvey, of Rockingham county, after which a bountiful repast was spread under the large oaks in the grove.
After lunch Captain Vawter, of the Miller Manual Labor School, gave a fine address. When the May day rally was over a grand success for better education, and the people of Louisa are determined to have a nine months' session and better school houses.

COL. FAW MARRIED.

Well Known Lecturer Weds
Miss Rose Stockdale.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
BRISTOL, VA., May 19.—Colonel Jack Faw, who was formerly here as a lawyer and later as a newspaper man, but who finally abandoned those professions to enter the lecture field, has won a fair share of woman for his bride. News of his marriage comes from Memphis. The bride was Miss Rose Stockdale, a daughter of the late Colonel T. R. Stockdale, of Summit, Miss. Mrs. Faw's father, who was a native of Pennsylvania, was promised as a lawyer in Mississippi, and represented his district in Congress several terms. Colonel Faw's first wife was a Miss Timberlake, of Staunton, Va., and was a niece of the late Charles Broadway Rouse, the New York millionaire merchant.

A Young Man Strikes His

THE FIGHT OF THE FACTIONS

Desperate Effort to Keep Two Adherents Out of Jail.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
NOFOLK, VA., May 19.—A. B. Griffin, a young man, was arrested of the streets today, after a wild fight with Police Captain Thomas Dalton. He acted quietly yesterday, and was taken up by the police on the streets. He was discharged in the Police Court this morning as harmless. He went to his home, on Charlotte Street, and felled his mother with a stick, and then appeared on the street again in a frenzy. Mrs. Griffin was seriously hurt by the blow in the face.

FIGHT OF THE FACTIONS.
The fight of the factions of two years ago has been reopened, with the members of the good government faction trying to keep out of jail. There were two cases in the courts today. C. T. Townley, who was a judge of elections for the good government faction, and was afterward appointed to the police force with two others, was held for trial on a motion in the Corporation Court for a new trial. He is in jail on conviction of obtaining $700 from Ruby Ford on the false pretense that he could release her sailor husband from the prison ship duty. He got the money and did not carry out his promise. He asked a new trial on the ground that there were discrepancies in the statements of the woman.

The other case was that of C. G. Mayes, who had been held for trial on the good government faction as one of its judges at the coming election. He was examined in the Police Court today and held for trial as an accessory to a felony.

The principal, O. M. Balenger, alias C. M.
Johnson, has been held for trial on the charge of forging six transfer tickets for voters supposed to belong to the other faction, the purpose of which was to transfer their votes to Newport News.

The contest for two years ago was to detect the frauds the good government faction had perpetrated in the primary election. The frauds were notorious, but the good government men escaped with the loss of one year's salary. They drove the buggy and carried the forged transfers.
Balenger took the transfers to the registrar to have the voters silenced.

It is a pretty mess, but the good government leaders are standing by the men who had the forged transfers.

BRACKMAN CRUSHED.
Charles T. Evans, of Berkeley, employed as a fireman and brakeman at the navy yard, is at St. Vincent's Hospital fatally injured. He was caught between two cars this morning while attempting to make a flying switch. His right foot and leg were crushed into a mass. He was in such a condition that amputation was out of the question, though he cannot survive the injuries he has received.

FELON IN PHILADELPHIA.
Wingfield Neville, a dangerous negro outlaw from Portsmouth, is in Philadelphia on trial for attempted murder. He is wanted in Portsmouth for a murder and for an assault on Police Officer Land. So soon as Neville is released in Philadelphia the Portsmouth officials expect to claim him for trial.

SURGEON'S KNIFE

treating the insane he believed that every effort should be made to remove any and every physical cause of insanity. That there are some cases in which he believed that a surgical operation would be beneficial, and that he and his assistants had carefully selected for surgery this character of the insane. He had invited several surgeons and physicians of Petersburg to be present when the major operations were performed.

adelphia, to operate on them; that the operations performed by Dr.
Price were of a difficult character, all of them being major operations.

PREVIOUS SPRING SALES ECLIPSED

W. L. Douglas Shoe Co. Sold 100,860 Pairs Last Week.

ENORMOUS AND GROWING DEMAND FOR PRODUCT.

Good Shoes and Liberal Advertising the Principle of Success.

The W. L. Douglas Shoe Co., pioneers in the manufacture and marketing of a specialty shoe, sold last week 100,860 pairs of their patented make, eclipsing the record of any previous week's business in the spring season since the inception of the company.

William L. Douglas, whose name and personal life are familiar to everyone throughout the country, due to his persistent and continuous advertising for the past 22 years, stated in an interview with The Times this morning that from present indications his tremendous business, run to their full capacity during the entire season, will hardly be able to fill the orders already received for fall delivery. Continuing, Mr. Douglas stated:

"It is an interesting fact that the orders average larger amounts from each customer than were shipped a year ago," which indicates the favor with which W.
L. Douglas shoes are received.

The W. L. Douglas Shoe Co.'s chain of exclusive retail stores, located in the principal cities, has shown an enormous gain the past season; as a matter of fact, a great many of their stores had twelve others, by the same chain, in addition to the stores already existing.

Asked by a reporter to what he attributed the enormous and largely increasing business, Mr. Douglas modestly replied:

"The main factors were the making of good shoes and liberal advertising—operated upon the five women and two men on last Tuesday and Wednesday, and that he returned to Philadelphia on Wednesday night. The patients were and physicians were present during the operations. Amongst them were Drs.

Osborne, Leigh and McGill.

Dr. Price will return to Petersburg probably on Monday or Tuesday to examine the condition of the patients who were operated upon.

During the operations of last Tuesday and Wednesday, Dr. Price was assisted by Dr. Drewry and by Drs. Brunk, Talbot, Garlick and Mason, of the Central State Hospital, staff.

Hospital in Fine Shape.
Dr. Drewry, the head of the hospital, has a national reputation. Under his care, the institution has increased not only in point of numbers, but in its sphere of usefulness. The cleanliness, order and discipline of the hospital can scarcely be realized. One forgets in walking through the wards that he is in an insane asylum, and rather imagines that he is making an examination of an extremely well-ordered hospital.

The inmates have the appearance of being happy and well contented; there is no display of sullenness or discontent, all seem busily engaged in some simple occupation, that takes their thoughts from unnatural fancies.

First Located in Richmond.
In 1886, when Dr. Drewry first came to the hospital, there were 35 inmates, while today there are 1,150 men and women on the roll. It is of interest to know that the Central State Hospital was first located in Richmond, in Howard's Grove, having been founded in 1828 by Dr. H. H. Hunt, who was first president of the board of directors. The institution was removed to Petersburg in 1888.

Dr. Stuart McGuire Talks.
Dr. Stuart McGuire, who will operate on a number of cases on June 8th, at the Central State Hospital, in Petersburg, was seen last night and asked to give his opinion regarding the surgical cure for insanity.

Dr. Stuart McGuire said: "Many people are made insane by physical disease and the consequent suffering that the disease causes. The only possible hope for the restoration of the mental faculty lies in the removal of the cause that made them insane."

"The cases that come within this class and can be cured by surgery are few in number, and great care is required in their selection. Because surgery will not cure all cases of insanity is no reason why it should not be applied to the exceptional cases that it will cure."

"The combination of Dr. Drewry and Dr. Price could not be improved upon.
For Dr. Drewry is one of the greatest alienists in these United States, and can safely be trusted to select only suitable cases, while Dr. Price is one of the greatest surgeons in the country."

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.) BOYDTON, VA., May 19.—Mecklenburg is perhaps the banner county of the State in the payment of the capitation tax.
As a matter of fact, the county transaction books show that 2,068 whites and 1,638 colored, making a total of 3,706, paid the tax before the 6th of this month.

This showing is all the more creditable to the colored people, as most of them are not qualified voters, and therefore the payment of the tax could not have been made for the purpose of enabling them to vote.
